Work Activities

(Khudi)

2 Years (2013 to 2015)

Attending Khudi Festival of Ideas 2014 in Karachi in which all of Pakistan's 300 delegates gather to share their social activism experiences. Khudi Pakistan is a social movement working to promote democratic culture, and youth initiative programs, in Pakistan. The group has various ways to raise awareness on issues under its agenda.

Khudi produces and translates literature in English and Urdu from a wide variety of sources to provide insights into the most pressing issues facing the country. The organization has projects focused on extremism in Pakistan and peace in South Asia.

In Khudi I had done various activities like the Qawali festival in 2014, training workshops on the constitution of Pakistan and human rights activism (2015), Come, Clean Pakistan activity, and many open mic sessions among students of the different institutes on different discussions.

(Punjab Lok Sujag)

October 8, 2015 to September 2017

I joined this organization as an editor but learn a lot of things during my services. The organization motivated young writers for writing their local and social issues. Conduct the session on The Punjab transparency act and Right to information act 2013 in the district of Pakpattan.

Working as district coordinator in Pakpattan and during my work, I develop a team of writers who all are able to voice up for their issues through web & local journalism.

(Lodhran Pilot Project)

March 5, 2019 to June 06 2019

Work in the Lodhran pilot project as a student engagement officer. The project named was Tamer-e-Amn. It was based on counter-violence extremism From DAI. A youth initiative programmed among university students. In this, I worked as a Student Engagement Officer in Multan. After a month of deputation in Ahmed Pur Siyal for the WASH project. I was assigned the charge of Knowledge Management officer. I cover most of the success stories and project M&E file work with field visits.

(Strengthening Participatory Organization)

1-year project

Worked as Social mobilizer and station in charge in Tehsil Chechawatni (Sahiwal) & District Bahawalnagar. During this activity, I delivered my services to mobilize village worker women to National Database & Registration Authority (NADRA) for their C.N.I.C card with my team. We had to work with the different chairpersons and native politicization to achieve our goals as a joint venture to promote the National database registration campaign for women.

(CMC)

One month research job

Conflict management consultancy (CMC) is an American firm that provides M&E, technical assistance, and research services in fragile, conflict, and post-conflict areas. They work for international organizations, governments, and civil society, deploying multi-national and highly specialized teams of experts.

I have done a research job with them as a data validation officer.
