

Dr Sanam Ismail

Father name.Mir Muhammad Ismail

CNIC.53101-1057520-2

Education.MBBS

+92.334.7924559
Hussainabad Quetta
CNIC.53101-1057520-2

sanamaali555@gmail.com

Yousafzai House 7-4/19A Alamdar Road

Summary

Enthusiastic and well-trained medical officer and Surveillance officers at WHO seeking to deliver high-quality health care to help maximize patient well-being and facility profitability. Very resourceful and compassionate. Familiar with the diagnosis and treatment of a wide range of conditions, diseases, and health concerns. Comfortable working in high-stress, fast-paced environments. Completed graduation MBBS. Fluent in English and local area languages.

Skills

Community Emergency Response | Coordination Skills | Emergence Care | Emergency Medical Knowledge | Hospital Medicine Knowledge | Injury Treatment | Report Writing Skills

Experience

Jan 2023 - Jan 2024 DDSO
WHO, Quetta, Pakistan

Field Validation Surveillance Management and Control on Vaccines Preventable Diseases

Oct 2020 - Jun 2022 House officer/LMO
Civil hospital/PPHI, Quetta, Pakistan

Education

2019 Inner Mongolia university China
MBBS , Bachelor in medicine Bachelor in Surgery
Clinical Medicine and Surgery, Medicine and Surgery Completed

Languages

English,Urdu,Balochi,Persian ,Pashto,Berawi,

Projects

Emergency Response

<http://World Health Organisation>

Public health surveillance also epidemiological surveillance, clinical surveillance or syndromic surveillance is, according to the World Health Organization (WHO).Systematic collection, analysis and interpretation of health-related data , planning, implementation, and evaluation of public health practice, vaccination,mopup activities health-related issues at an early stage and find active solutions in a timely manner.

