I am a Data Science enthusiast with a decade of experience in the field, currently working as an Data Support Officer in Data and Research. I hold a Diploma in IT. Over the past seven years, I've honed my skills as a Data analyst, gaining expertise in areas such as Power BI dashboard modeling, GIS mapping, and automating Whats App live location compilation into Excel. Most recently, I've developed a predictive forecasting model for various SIA indicators using R Programming and PHP statistical machine learning libraries.
