Dear Sir/Madam,

I hope this email finds you well. I am writing to submit an insurance claim on behalf of CHW Shabana, a member of our polio eradication team who sustained a severe injury in an off-field incident.

Chw Shabana was involved in an unfortunate accident recently, resulting in significant injuries to her leg. As a result of the severity of the injury, she underwent surgery, during which a rod was installed in her leg to aid in the recovery process. Regrettably, Chw Shabana is expected to be unable to perform her duties for approximately 2 months.

It's important to note that this incident occurred while Chw Shabana was not engaged in any field activities related to our polio program. Therefore, we believe that She is eligible for coverage under insurance policy, which provides benefits for off-duty accidents.

We kindly request your prompt review and processing of this claim to ensure that she receives the necessary support and assistance during this challenging time.

Thank you for your attention to this matter and your assistance in facilitating
