Dear Dr Saab,

Her reply is not satisfactory she has remained problematic AS in the UC always remains absent causal attitude no improvement in her performance.

She remained absent in NID February for four days.

She may be issued final warning letter.

Regards

Honourable Sir,

As per the response of A.S Basria regarding explanation letter received to her seems unsatisfactory. As she denied all the allegations on her which is her giving a false statements and instead of explanation she has put allegations on the UC staff.

Also she mentioned that UCDO has changed her form 2A which is a false allegation as she herself agreed that it is in her own writing and doesn't include any overwriting on it.

The still missed children are validated by CBV Officer and find discrepancies in it which is also a denial by her.

She also refused that she has never been late or only once which is another false statement as monitors have observed her many times for arriving late or being absent in many activities.

Furthermore she has texted me on WhatsApp putting further allegations on my character and making such arguments that she should not have been reported for any misconduct.

The pictures of form 2A are attached herewith for your reference and further process.
