Examination regulations for the NEBOSH International General Certificate in Occupational Health and Safety

Learners are required to observe the following regulations:

1. Please arrive at the examination room at least ten minutes before the start of each unit examination. Only in very exceptional circumstances will you be allowed to enter the examination room after the examination has started. You must bring this Examination Entry Confirmation with you.

2. The confirmation must be displayed on the desk throughout the examination. You are required to sign this confirmation in the presence of the invigilator before each unit examination. You may be asked for photographic evidence of identity (eg. driving licence, national identity card, passport or similar). Pens, pencils and a ruler may be brought into the examination room in a clear plastic bag.

3. Personalised answer books will be provided for the written papers. Your name and student number will be printed on the front of your answer book. You must check that the name and student number on your Examination Entry Confirmation are identical to those on your answer book. Please notify the invigilator immediately if they are not.

4. You must not use any notes or books during the examination. All such material brought into the examination room must be handed to the invigilator before the examination begins. Infringement of this regulation may result in disqualification.

5. Please write clearly and legibly. The Examiners cannot award marks if they cannot read your writing. You must write in black or blue ink or ballpoint pen. You must not use correcting fluids, pens or tape or highlighter pens.

6. Please start each question on a new page and ensure that the question number is written clearly in the box provided at the top of each page. All work, including rough work, should be done within the answer book/s.

7. Strict silence must be maintained during the examination, and you must not communicate with, or try to copy from, others. Infringement of this regulation will result in disqualification. Mobile telephones, MP3 players, pagers, equipment producing audible signals and other products with text or internet facilities must be switched off and placed beyond reach. Calculators can be used in the examination and can be either battery or solar powered.

Calculators must not:

- be designed or adapted to offer language translation;
- be designed or adapted to offer communication with other machines or the internet;
- be borrowed from another candidate;
- have retrievable information stored in them.

8. You will not be allowed to leave the examination room until the expiry of one hour from the official start time and will not normally be allowed to return. If you leave early, please do so quietly and hand in both your examination question paper and script to the invigilator. You will not be permitted to leave the examination in the last half hour of the examination in order to avoid disturbance to other candidates.

9. When the invigilator announces that the examination is over, you must stop writing immediately. Your script and question paper must be handed to the invigilator at the end of the examination. You must remain seated until all scripts have been collected.

Requests for special consideration

Any candidate who feels they may be disadvantaged in the examination due to an illness, family bereavement, distraction or for any other reason which applied at the time of the examination must report this to the invigilator at the time of the examination. You must also request that formal, written confirmation be sent by the invigilator to NEBOSH, corroborated by the invigilator and with medical evidence where appropriate.

The NEBOSH Results Panel will give special consideration to all such representations before the examination results are declared. Requests for special consideration are not admissible after results have been issued other than in wholly exceptional circumstances.

NB Please note that special consideration cannot be given for factors that have affected examination preparation eg illness during the course or revision time.

Results

Results will be made available to your Course Provider. Results will be available by the notification date shown overleaf.

Learner name

Your name (as shown overleaf) will appear on your unit certificates and final qualification parchment, (names exceeding 60 characters may appear over two or more lines). If your name is shown incorrectly you must immediately advise us in writing enclosing a copy of supporting photographic identification eg current passport, driving licence or national identity card. NEBOSH will make every effort to accommodate your request but please note that due to regulatory requirements this may not always be possible. NEBOSH reserves the right to charge candidates for re-issuing certification.

This confirmation must not be marked in any way before or during the examination, except for your signature as required at regulation 2 above.
