Dear Dr. Yehia,

Thanks for sharing the updates regarding the incident took place with our staff member. Below requested information are vital to further pursuance the matter with district administration for legal action against the culprits and to ensure the security of SM in official capacity. We should write the deputy commissioner for intervention through WHO PTL for investigating the matter once the individual(s) suspected identified by our PEO.

Regards,
Naveed

Dear Dr Iqbal

Thank you for your email.

As per our meeting –upon your request- on Saturday 29 August 2020:

While going back from DPCR after online August SNIDs review meeting with Provincial WHO Office on 28 August, 4 armed UCPOs and 1 TCSO stopped your car, threatened you and Dr Shahbaz AC on background of not considering their UCs after reduction of UCPOs as per transformation.

Please review these statements and correct it if required. Moreover, the following is required:

-Location of incident (UC, Mohalla etc.)

-Details/Type of vehicle you were using (official, Rented, personal etc.)

-Time of incident

-Name of UCPOs and TCSO involved, their assigned UCs/Tehsil and who were armed , type of weapon

Your urgent reply is appreciated

Respected sir

I am very thankful for precious time given by you, Md and dr Anwar Bughti sb during weekend .

As I told that after post campaigns meeting at Friday after 4pm I was moving for my family a security incident happened to me by our staff which i explained in detail .

Keeping in view the transformation these staff posts will be no more due to transformation its better to engage thier family regarding there family members illegal and unprofessional act would more better .

So Initial engagement with there families shows it is provoked act . There apology and regret regarding their family members act shows very positive out come .

Mean while the concerns regarding security we will be in fully contact with Mr Ashraf and follow the SOPs.

Regards

Dr Iqbal kakar PEO Zhob
