Subject: Reply of explanation on account of Misleading Information

Respected Sir,

With due respect, I am writing as according to the mentioned subject that it was right that my supervisor has found me in UC-2 on dated 25 Jan-21, I was at my duty station on a mentioned date but suddenly I received a call from my home that my wife's sugar level has dropped and she became unconscious and she already is a diabetic patient and due to extra dose of insulin she becomes unconscious so in hurry, I took my wife to the hospital from shabirbad UC to HMB Hospital which is located in UC -2 and during taking some medicine from the medical store my supervisor seen me at lakhidar city UC-2.

In the emergency condition I forget to inform my supervisor which is already very compassionate and kind to all UCPOz and very helpful in difficulty but this act of mine hurt my supervisor for that I am very shame full and I never will repeat ever again such type of carelessness in future kindly considered my this mistake on the human ground and pardoned me

I am again apologizing for not informing properly to the supervisor I will correct my mistakes and will never show this negligence in the future. Please accept my heartiest apologies for showing negligence.

Regards,
Irshad Ali Jatio
