Dear sir i apologize regarding mentioned issue, i have been working in this organization since six years, i have started work as a volunteer team worker when no body was agree to work in this program due to terrorism many incident happened with us in the field but i keep continue my sincere and dedicated efforts in this national and noble cause of Polio eradication from our beloved country,

Sir before this three times degrees are verified by WHO over all in karachi on different times.

Dear sir i am promoted on merit and working performance first as a area in charge then TTSP, finally promoted as a UCPO three years ago, PEO, THMT and colleague staff are well known and satisfy with my sincere support and efforts also many times my seniors appreciated on my struggles and performance,

With support of this Job my kitchen is connected i belong poor and very needy family living in house of rent and i have three children there is no second way of income

I humble request to HR CTC kindly consider my performance i can more perform for this noble program and request to continue my job in this program.and release my salary as it is hold i am facing crises and have to pay house rent, children school fee, medicine expense of my family and other.

I will be always very thankful to you.

Thanks

Kind Regards
