Dear and Respected Sir,

It is to be noted in your kind notice that I have not received mail from the CTC. I have received mail forwarded by PEO today on 9:48am.

In Response to your mail. It is stated that the area Asil Targhaw is very tough, hard to reach, far flung and there is no communication source in the area.

The road is under construction and was blocked on several places during the activity.

The plan for the activity was revised on the spot. Hence some colleagues reach late to their teams under supervision.

PEO is my immediate supervisor. I respect him wholeheartedly. He has provided us a friendly environment during the activity. During the activity if he has noted anything guilty on my part. Which was not acceptable to him. I am very very sorry for that. I will not repeat this in the future. I will try my level best to improve myself as a best worker and employee of the organization.

Regards.

Abdullah TCSP Barang.
