asslamo alikum ..

the scenario is that my home town is pindi bhatian and i am performing my duties at Khurrianwala filling station faisalabad. i get late on monday because from pindi bhattian there is no public transport direct to khurrianwala. if i get a bus from pindi bhattian it will drop me at fsd and khurrianwala takes an hour from fsd. My mother is a heart patient and every week on sunday i visit the doctor for her medical check up. i am the person in the family who is educated and responsible for her medicine.

so i use my links with industrial transport to reach at site as early as possible. these all things i explain to my supervisor on every monday. i am feeling sorry that knowing all the facts my supervisor could not give relaxation to me for a few minutes. on the other hand since i have joined the CTC as safety warden my site is always doing its best and is on NO#1 among faisalabad. you can check my app performance. further as my supervisor guided me about app i agreed with him. i am giving my best what i can. i hope the situation will be understood and anticipated wisely. here its also a humble request that for monday i should be given relaxation for a few minutes. i will do my best as far as i am a part of CTC.

Thanks
