Subject: TCSP kahan District Kohlu absent from duty station with out any information

Dear Sabeela

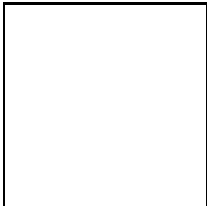

With reference to our verbal communication on subjected matter that Mr Muhammad Aslam TCSP kahan district Kohlu is unauthorized absent from his duty station since 1st April 2019 to till date and in the past months he was also used to remain absent without any information from his duty, in this regard he is also given written and verbal warnings from his first level supervisor and by myself to be regular and punctual in his duties but no improvement seen. It is observed that he is taking all the warnings casually and continued to remained unauthorized absent.

He was also given work assignments for the improvement of program in his assigned area but not a single assignment is completed and remained unsatisfactory for the program.

It is therefore submitted to you that strict disciplinary action must be taken against him for this serious misconduct.

All his absenteeism is reported to CTC/HR and salary is deducted accordingly in each month.

Kind Regards
Dr Zafar Abro
