

The thing is.

You all are like my brothers and you all are very dear to me.

Just trust on your faith and believe

And note that if I saw you that you guys have done something wrong anything immoral, I will be upset but inshaAllah i will not disclose anything to anyone. I will not let it stain your moral image and we will maintain our brotherhood.

But the thing that upset me the most is; that you boys, are stupid. You guys yourself are leaving witnesses and evidences.

Just call her or one among you three boys should have called the girl for coming.

Why you guys leave evidences behind you

You boys are good looking, she is not miss universe that you guys can't control yourself for her.

This is a big world. If not this girl, you will get another and another.

Flirt with her, you guys have your own cars take her out and f her

No one is stopping you. But there's is an environment here, respect that. Don't leave witnesses and evidences behind you.

You guys are very stupid.

It is all about understanding. If you have good understanding with the person, no one will come to know about this relation, not me, not kamran.

You guys are rascals because you f her for a month and after a month you inform us (kind of Proverb in Pushto).

You guys are players, don't leave evidences behind you. Don't involve other girls.

My suggestion is that if these girls are passing smiles, just ignore them and maintain a serious relation with them.

Okay.
